

SEPTEMBER

18

Niagara Wine Festival, Sept 18-27
niagarawinefestival.com

Join a parade, taste some wine on a vineyard tour, check out concerts, listen to wine seminars or dine on fine Niagara cuisine, all at the largest wine festival in the country!

Photo courtesy of Canadian Tourism Commission

23 IIDEX/NeoCon,
 Sept 23-26, Toronto,
iidexneocon.com

Anyone interested in interior design, green living, amazing new products and knowledgeable keynote speakers has to be at this design show — end of story.

Photo courtesy Massey Hall

25 The Clothing Show,
 Sept 25-27, Toronto,
theclothingshow.com

If shopping in mainstream stores and looking like everybody else is a big turnoff, shop the vintage and independent designer circuit at The Clothing Show. Guys, check out the new menswear addition.

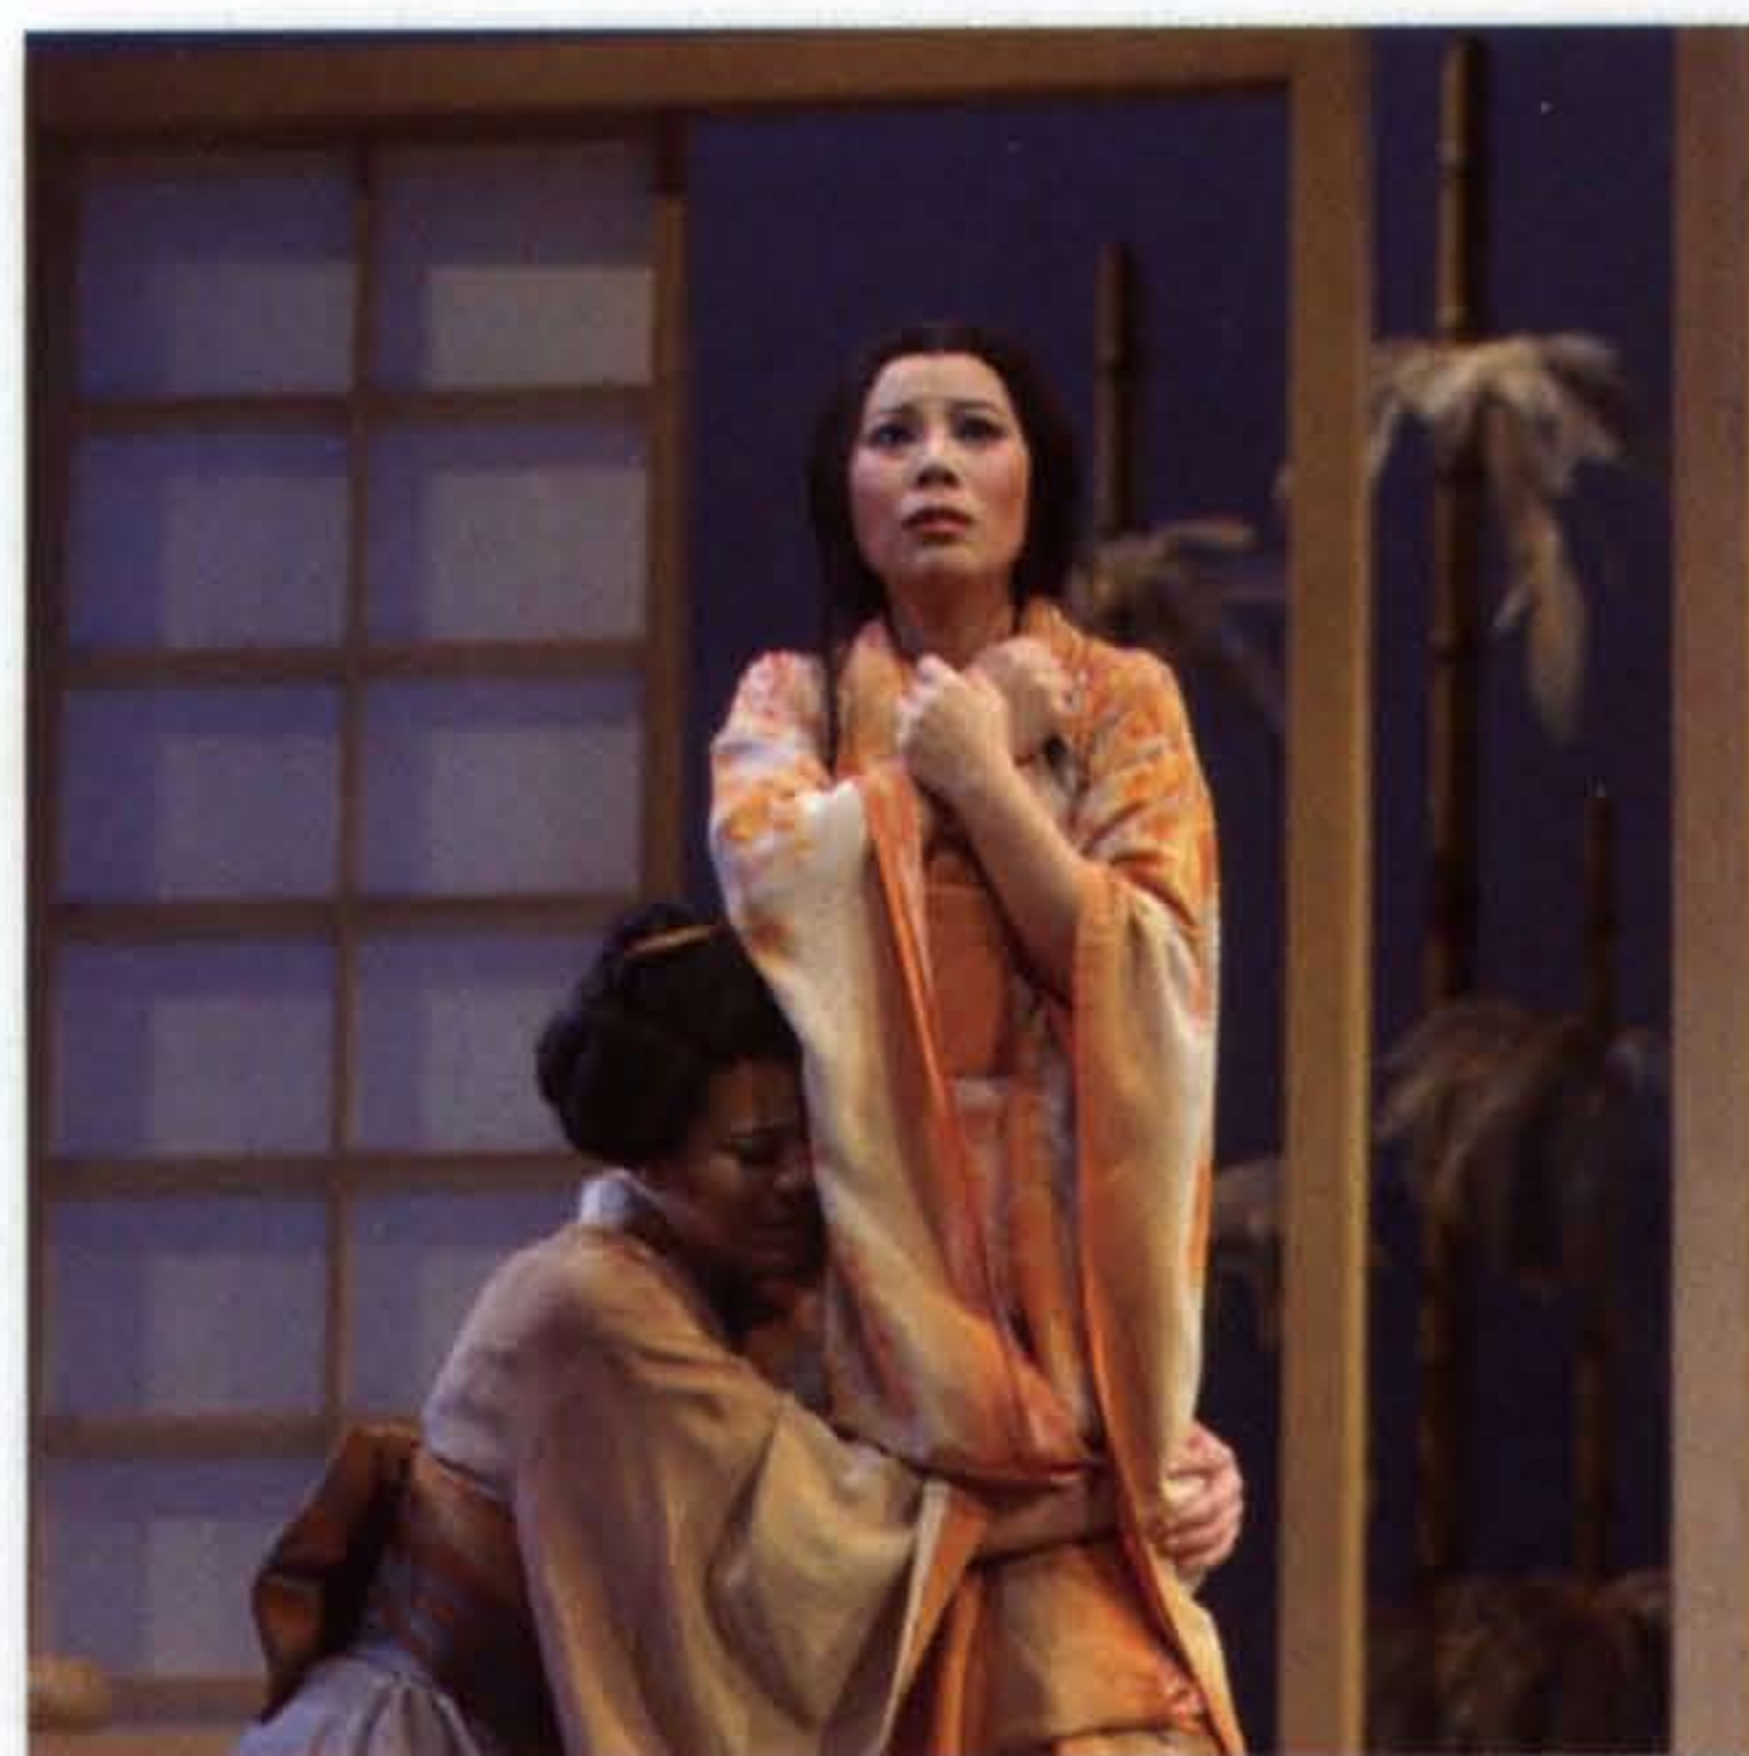

Photo by Michael Cooper

26 Classic Albums Live performs "Abbey Road,"
 Massey Hall, Toronto,
roythomson.com

We can pretty much guarantee The Beatles won't be touring, so you might want to nab tickets for this great recreation concert. "Come together" to celebrate Abbey Road's 40th anniversary.

28 Madama Butterfly, Four Seasons Centre for the Performing Arts, Sept 26-Nov 3, Toronto,
coc.ca

One of the most famous operas of all time, Puccini's Madama Butterfly tells the heartbreaking tale of beautiful Japanese geisha, Cio-Cio-San and her tragic love story.

27 Word on the Street,
 Toronto,
thewordonthestreet.ca

Bookworms unite! Take to Toronto streets to check out what's new in literature and magazines, meet with authors and attend a special reading or two.

Photo by Andrew MacPherson

30 Pink, Air Canada Centre, Toronto,
theaircanadacentre.com

So what? She's still a rock star and she's at the ACC to perform songs from her latest record, Funhouse.